

Lyska Dilworth

Software developer, project management engineer at ArcBest technologies She Earned a BS & MS degree from the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff in computer science in information technology.

She had a childhood desire to be a computer engineer.
Her favorite high school classes for math and in college calculus and programming.
Her dream job is enterprise IT strategist

Never lose sight of your end goal. Get and stay focused on the task at hand. Life is full of twists and turns and naysayers... that's to be expected. Don't stop until you achieve your goal. Then after that... Reach for a new one.

